"For yet a little while, and He who is coming will come and will not tarry." - Hebrews 10 V37
"The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance." - 2 Peter 3 V9
Christians in great anticipation are waiting for the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. For the last 2000 years Christians have been waiting for that day when the Lord will come to receive unto Himself His own. The hope the early Church fathers had, we still have. And the Lord could return at any moment. Now we can say that our salvation is nearer than when we first believed, and it is nearer even when our forefathers believed. One thing is for sure, as we see the world events and how things are aggregating toward a climax, we are more convinced that these are the last days our Lord talked about before His return. Whether the Lord returns today on in the next several years, we know our Lord is not slack concerning His promise and one day will meet Him face-to-face. He who is coming will come and will not tarry, this we know for sure. Praise the Lord!
"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work." - Jesus Christ
Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!
