Almost lost my sleep when further thinking about that recent UFO sighting in Texas, quote: "this is the Bible Belt, and everyone (!) is afraid it's the end of times".

We are truly living in the end times, and for us true Christians it is essential and crucial, when we obey the command, "Set the Trumpet to thy Mouth", that our "call" is crystal-clear - and avoid the 2 Thess. 2:2 -phenomenon again, "That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of THE LORD (not the Day of Christ!) is at hand."

To give a helping hand in this, recently, believers around the world have taken on an effort to translate both the "Two Roads – Two Destinies" (34 different language versions existing today) and "Biblical Prophecy" charts (in 58 languages). Canadian Christians have been providing the "Two Roads - Two Destinies (Who is Wise) chart in banner form for many years. It is a pleasure now to provide them in digital form, making them more accessible for evangelism work around the world.

Further more, Canadian David Rodgers, missionary in Chile, had the exercise to make up an evangelistic Bible study course based on the 2 Roads and 2 Destinies chart, which is used so much in gospel campaigns around the world. The Lord has been blessing in the salvation of souls by this means. It is of course simply written and purposely directed to an unsaved audience. It consists of a title page, index and 22 lessons, each one with the Bible reading included in the text, explanation and finishing with a questionnaire. Applied it can be used as Sunday school material, too. And following that link above, you'll also find recorded messages from October of 2005, when Jim Paul spent some time with the Moncton assembly, focusing on prophecy, using the above mentioned BP chart for a framework. Esteemed saint Leslie Wells of Ireland, now living in Tracadie, NB, Canada, is the creator of the BP chart. He is faithfully, still, going door-to-door in North America with the Good News of the Lord. I encourage every saint to study these wonderful charts in the light of the Scriptures, to be "more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so." (Acts. 17:11)

The Lord will bless the reading of His Word. And by receiving, we can give. Now when the institutions of man everywhere, carrying the Name of the Lord, have forgotten their first Love, and turned to blasphemers of Israel, instead, "the harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few" (Mt. 9:37).

"But the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And they that understand among the people shall instruct many" (Dan. 11:32-33).

Be blessed in that Heavenly Mission. Amen!
