Theresa May urged not to 'abuse position to promote Christianity' after revealing God is her driving force