India drags China to international court for COVID-19 war