"So Satan answered the Lord and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?" " - Job 1 V9

"...Now salvation , and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down." - Revelation 12 V10

Satan is the fallen angel of God and he has access to God's presence even to this day, and all he does before God is accuse all the brethren. There is no truth in him and he made Job suffer for nothing. We know from the Scripture that Satan's access to heaven will be cut-off by God and he will be thrown to the earth during the tribulation period. All who have believed and trusted Christ as their Saviour will be in heaven during this time, after the rapture of the Church. But until then, without the power of Christ, even we are vulnerable to Satan's tricks and he is roaming around to seize every opportunity to devour us. Brethren, do not let the devil deceive you but seek the help of God and stay close to His presence by meditating in the Word of God.

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work." - Jesus Christ
