"But my eyes are upon You, O God the Lord; In You I take refuge; Do not leave my soul destitute." - Psalm 141 V8

"Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set upon us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God." - Hebrews 12 V1,2

Lay aside every weight and cast all your cares upon Jesus. Look at Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. He set aside His glory and came down to seek us and He endured the cross for our sakes, even by dying a shameful death on the cross. Jesus Christ rose again from the grave and today He sits at the right hand of God almighty. He offers the gift of salvation to all who are willing to believe in Him and receive Him as Lord and Saviour. Praise the Lord!

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work." - Jesus Christ

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!
