"That which is has already been, and what is to be has already been; And God requires an account of what is past." - Ecclesiastes 3 V15

"The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged each one according to his works." - Revelation 20 V13

One day each person who ever lived will stand before God and give an account of his life. The believer in Christ will give an account of his life to Christ and all his works that were done not to the glory of God will be burned-up but the believer himself will be saved because he trusted in Christ. But the unbelievers will stand before God at the final judgment and will be judged according to his works. No flesh will be justified according to works because all have sinned and will fall short of the glory of God and of His holiness. The gap between unrighteousness and righteousness is bridged only through the shed blood of Christ. Those who during their earthly life received the grace of God by accepting Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour, only they will be saved. Receive the free gift of salvation which God offers through His Son Jesus Christ. Come to the Saviour and receive life. Praise the Lord!

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work." - Jesus Christ

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!
