"And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors." - Matthew 6 V12

"And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you." - Ephesians 4 V32

One of the greatest attributes of a Christian is to have an attitude to forgive others. Christ as He hung on the cross cried out to the Father to forgive those who were killing Him, similarly, Stephen prayed to God for those who were stoning him. In our Lord's prayer we say "forgive us as we forgive those who sin against us", and this indicates we should not expect God to forgive us if we cannot forgive someone. Let us live by being kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, and glorifying our Father and God in heaven. Praise God!

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work." - Jesus Christ Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!
