

An Open Invitation

Written by Jacob Chacko Kallara
Friday, 28 September 2007 20:36

"But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name:" - John 1 V12

"For whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" - Romans 10 V13

All are invited to the banquet and yet nothing is expected from us except that we believe in the name of Jesus and have a personal relationship with the King. We get the right to be called the children of the Most High God when we receive Jesus Christ into our life. You have nothing to lose and all to gain, starting with your own soul. Come to Jesus my friend and don't miss the big banquet!

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work." -

Jesus Christ