"...All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth." - Matthew 28:18

"Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name..." - Philippians 2:9

After the resurrection, Christ ascended into heaven and was glorified to His former glory which He had with the Father before the foundations of this world were laid. He was exalted above all and He rules the heaven and earth. One day every knee shall bow and every tongue confess at the name of Jesus. Worship the King and give Him all the glory. Praise the Lord!
