"They shall see His face and His name shall be on their foreheads. There shall be no night there; They need no lamp nor light of the sun, for the Lord God gives them light. And they shall reign forever and ever." - Revelation 22:4-5

The future is bright for those who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ. It is bright because of the glory from His presence. It is something beyond our imagination what God has prepared for those who love Him. Above all our Lord and our God will live with His people and in His presence there is joy everlasting. Our life on earth, no matter how it is, heaven will be far more glorious than words can describe. Rejoice! Praise the Lord!
