"...In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." - John 16:33

"And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my strength is made perfect in weakness." " - 2 Corinthians 12:9

Christ did not promise His followers a smooth sailing life, but on the contrary He warned us of more intense trials and tribulation. If they persecuted our Master, even more will they persecute His followers. Christ has won us the victory from death and now death cannot separate us from our Lord. While we will need to endure trials, He has promised us His grace, which is all sufficient. It is the grace of God that a believer receives and as a result even in the midst of great trials we experience the peace of God. Praise the Lord!
