"Oh, how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day." - Psalm 119:97

"But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?" - James 2:20

The law of God is perfect and it reflects, just like a mirror, our sinfulness. We are not saved by keeping the law because no one can perfectly keep the law, but faith in our Lord is reflected through our works. The Psalmist's love for the Lord was displayed through his love for God's law. So, when we say we love God, does our works reflect our love for God? Let's not try to be perfect by keeping the law because that is a vain thing, but let's rely on Christ's perfectness and trust in Him in all walks of our life.

Praise the Lord!
