

No condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus

"When Jesus had raised Himself up and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, "Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?" She said, "No one Lord." And Jesus said to her, 'Neither do I condemn you; go and sin no more.' " - John 8:10-11

"There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit." - Romans 8:1

We see a stark contrast between Satan and our Lord when it comes to condemning others. Our Lord is compassionate and merciful, and He is our Advocate even today before the Father and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins. Satan is the accuser of the brethren. He accuses us before God day and night and he wants the people of God condemned. When the woman caught in adultery was brought before Jesus, Jesus did not condemn her but forgave her and let her go. Every believer in Christ stands before God uncondemned because Christ bore our condemnation and sin and He nailed it to the cross. Praise the Lord!
