

"The Lord has appeared of old to me, saying: "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you." - Jeremiah 31:3    "For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." - Romans 8:38-39    The love of God toward His children is permanent and not determined by what we do. The moment we receive the Lord Jesus Christ into our heart, our salvation is sealed and nothing can separate us from the love of God. When we sin, we grieve the Holy Spirit, but when we repent, our Father of love is merciful to forgive us. His love does not change and with lovingkindness He draws us to Himself. Let's live with confidence in the love of our Saviour and be bold in proclaiming about the great things our Lord has done for us. Praise the Lord!
