"Seek the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon." - Isaiah 55:6-7 "And while they [foolish virgins] went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut." - Matthew 25:10 The doors of heaven is open and everyone is invited to enter in through Jesus Christ (John 10:9), by receiving Him as Lord and Savior. The door will be shut one day and no one can enter the door. Many die every moment without receiving Christ, and sadly the door will be shut for those who are lost without Christ. God closed the door of the ark that Noah built at the instruction of God and except for Noah's family, all other people perished outside the ark. The Bible calls to seek the Lord while He may be found. Call upon Him while He is near. He is merciful and full of compassion to those who repent and turn to Him with a humble heart. Today is the day of salvation. Call upon the Lord. Praise the Lord!
