"If I must boast, I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity." - 2 Corinthians 11:30
"For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain." - Philippians 1:21 Our natural tendency would be to speak good things about ourselves. We may like to boast about a certain skill or strength or things we have acquired over time. Hardly we speak about our weaknesses. But Apostle Paul preferred to boast about his weakness. Because when he was weak, he was strong in Christ. For him to live was Christ. In 2 Cor. 11:24-28 we see the list of perils Apostle Paul faced. He was troubled from all sides while serving the Lord. And yet he lived for Christ. Let's follow Apostle Paul's example and glorify Christ in all our infirmities because when we are weak we are used by God more abundantly. Praise the Lord!
