

"Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way, First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift." - Matthew 5:23,24 "And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you." - Ephesians 4:32 We often go before God expecting God to be merciful and to answer all our prayers. But are we kind and forgiving to others just as our heavenly Father is to us? It's easy to play the hypocrite and expect from God what we ourselves do not do to others. Let's be kind to one another, forgiving, and being patient. Remember, Christ forgave us all our sins. He paid the price for our sins on the cross. Wouldn't be our moral duty to do likewise? Praise the Lord!
