

"For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor power, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." - Romans 8:38,39

"For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day." - 2 Timothy 1:12

Apostle Paul believed and lived what he taught and preached. After his conversion on the road to Damascus, his life changed from being a persecutor for the Church to being a servant and follower of Jesus Christ his Lord. Believers in Jesus Christ are part of the body of Christ and nothing can separate them from their Lord. If we know whom we have believed, we should live in confidence and hope that our Lord is with us and He will accomplish His will in us. We are pilgrims and passerby in this world, but as we pass by we ought to reflect Christ to the world that people may turn from darkness to light and join the journey, which leads to eternal life with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. O what a blessed thought that nothing can separate us from the love of God which is in Jesus Christ our Lord! Praise the Lord!
