

"...Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints, to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."
- Jude :14,15 "Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war." - Revelation 19:11
Looking at the world events today we can see there is no peace. Injustice and wickedness is on the rise, and life appears to be hopeless. Moral absolutes are questioned and challenged in all facets of life. Where do we turn to find peace? Well, the world will experience true peace only when Christ will return and establish His physical kingdom on earth. The Lord will come with all His saints and He will put an end to all wickedness. He will not take counsel from men or nation, but with righteousness He will rule and reign, and His saints with Him. All things are accountable to God, and no one can escape His righteous judgment. Those who trusted in Him, who are called saints, will not be judged but will rule with their Savoir. O what a glorious day that will be when Christ returns. Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints! Praise the Lord!
