"The LORD is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth." - Psalm 145:18
"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me." - Revelation 3:20 Christians are often accused in the world of converting people to Christianity. As a result, Christians are persecuted and punished. The truth is no one can convert anyone unless God draws the person to Himself. It is the work and act of God when someone comes by faith to Him. It is God who invites everyone through the preaching of the Gospel. He is near to all who call upon Him in truth. So, turning to Christianity is not a human act but the will of God to receive all who come to Him. Behold our Lord stands at the door and knocks. Anyone who hears His voice will be received and welcomed in the family of God. This is the promise of God, and no man or demon can stand in between. The invitation to come to Christ is open and all who seek the truth are welcome. The LORD is near to all who call upon Him. Praise the Lord!
