"So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it." - Isaiah 55:11
"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." - 2 Timothy 3:16

The greatest physical object we hold in our hands is the Word of God, preserved for us in the sixty-six books of Holy Scripture. And the greatest miracle we witness today is the new birth, when the Word of God is proclaimed and a sinner is made a new creation in Christ. The Word of God never returns void; it always accomplishes the purpose and will of God. This living Word equips us, shapes us, and makes us complete for every good work. So let us cherish it, delight in it, and grow deep within it. And as we abide in the Word, may the Holy Spirit transform us, taking us from newborn creation to the mature image of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Praise be to the Father. Praise the Lord!
