Turkey has massed 140,000 soldiers on its border with northern Iraq, Iraq's foreign minister said Monday, calling the neighboring country's fears of Kurdish rebels based there "legitimate" but better resolved through negotiation.

"Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee."
—Ezekiel 38:6