President Ahmadinejad of Iran is once again threatening the state of Israel, exclaiming that the countdown to Israel's destruction has begun with the Second Lebanese War and the efforts of Hamas and Hizbullah. Yesterday, Iranian Foreign Minister Mottaki urged Palestinian terrorist organizations to continue fighting against the Jewish state, as he met with Hamas leader Khaled Mashaal and representatives of Islamic Jihad. It's by no means the first time Iran has threatened to wipe Israel off the map. Last year Mottaki denied Israel even existed during a press conference regarding Iran's nuclear ambitions. Ahmedinejad has stated that the sure way to end the Middle East conflict is to end Israel's existence. Iranian newspapers also predicted last year that a great war was coming which would result in the destruction of the state of Israel...

Quote: ""The arrogant superpowers and the Zionist regime invested all their efforts during the 33-day war, but after 60 years, their pride has been trampled and the countdown to the destruction of this regime has been started by Hizbullah fighters," the president was quoted as saying by Iranian news agency Mehr. Ahmadinejad added that "with the help of all the Lebanese and Palestinian fighters, we will witness the destruction of this regime in the near future... Anyone who works for God and believes in the power of the people will prevail."

There aren't the words of some mad man. Those who have spoken to Ahmadinejad have said that he is charming, witty and a very clever man. No, these are the words of a man who is so controlled by Satan, that he hates anything to do with Jesus Christ and God's plan for mankind. I've said before, the world is not anti-God. Hell is filled with religious people, and if he can, Satan will use religion to keep people in their sins. The world is anti-Christ, because Satan hates Jesus Christ. From the very beginning, Satan tried to mess up God's plan for the world. He had Cain murder Abel in an attempt to cut off the lineage of the Messiah before He was born. He has tried on numerous occasions to wipe out the nation of Israel, thus destroying the people from which the Messiah would come (Micah 5:2). At Christ's birth he had all the babies in Bethlehem murdered, to try and prevent Jesus Christ going to the cross (Matthew 2:18). And Satan is still attempting to destroy God's people Israel, in order to prevent Christ from setting up His kingdom in Jerusalem. In a last desperate attempt, he will try and make war with Jesus Christ as the Lord returns with us out of heaven. But Satan will be defeated (Revelation 17:14).

That I believe, is what is at the back of all these anti-Israel boycotts, and possibly the global hatred of the United States (which supports Israel) and to a lesser extent Great Britain. Satan is a failure. Everything he has done has failed, and will continue to fail. Jesus Christ is the one who is worthy of all honour and praise, and it shall be His in that coming day when He reigns from the river Euphrates to the ends of the earth (Psalm 72:8).
