These links from my friends James, Ed and David...

According to WorldNetDaily , a top secret meeting between the US, Canada and Mexico took place last week to discuss the recently proposed North American Union, or the Security and Prosperity Partnership. It's been described as "NAFTA on drugs" and should by the year 2010, create a supranational government that is unaccountable to either Americans, Mexicans or Canadians. In other words, an American version of the European Union. The European Union began with a European Coal and Steel Community Pact after the second world war. This was the only agreement that was actually voted on by European citizens. Fifty years later, European governments have - without the consent of the people, pooled their national sovereignties and today the European Commission - a body of unelected, unaccountable politicians, dictates law to member states. The following words are those of Salvador De Madariaga, Javier Solana's grandfather, stating how it is possible to eliminate national sovereignty through an external body, such as the League of Nations. His grandson is now achieving this goal through the European Union.

Quote: "It is a well-known fact that the League works on the principle of unanimity. The alternative to such a principle is a super-state, since on the day a nation could be bound by decisions taken by an international body against its own vote, its own sovereignty would have been transferred to the international body in question..

.

This is exactly what has happened with the EU. Although I live in Northern Ireland, I am free to travel anywhere within the European Union without a visa - there are no borders in Europe. This of course is very beneficial for me as a citizen. But I'm not too fussed on the idea of people in Brussels making decisions which affect my life, particularly in the light of end time prophecy. According to a report by Dennis Behreandt (dated October 2nd 2006?), this is the situation America will be facing in the not too distant future. The Security and Prosperity Partnership will set up a supranational government, that will have the authority (from whom?) to dictate laws on energy, commerce and even economic and security policy. President Bush is following the recommendations of the Council on Foreign Relations, a body that openly advocates the creation of a New World Order.

Quote: "A further measure of the speed with which a North American Union is likely to develop is found within the CFR's recommendations for the SPP. That organization, which so often drafts the foreign-policy blueprints followed by the federal government, calls for " the creation by 2010 of a North American community .... Its boundaries will be defined by a common external tariff and an outer security perimeter within which the movement of people, products, and capital will be legal, orderly, and safe. Its goal will be to guarantee a free, secure, just, and prosperous North America." It is incredible, but just four years from now - if the CFR template is followed - the United States may cease to exist as an independent political entity. Its laws, rules, and regulations - including all freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution - will be subject to review and nullification by the North American Union's governing body.

We've always wondered where America would fit in to end time prophecy. With Middle East, America, Asian, Australian and African free trade agreements all to be implemented by the year 2010, it may be just a matter of time before nationalistic ideas are eliminated altogether, and one authority governs all "nations". Mankind's ultimate goal through all this is world peace, but Satan's goal is to be worshipped as God, and we know where that will lead. But in the meantime, we can still have faith that God is in control of events, and the Most High still rules in the kingdom of men.

Daniel 4:17
This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

Source WorldNetDaily , Europa , The New American , CFR