I saw this story a couple of days ago, but I wasn't sure whether to put it on the site or not. I don't like putting up articles on the site which can't be verified as factual, and I don't like delving into conspiracy theories either. But seeing there isn't much happening in regards to the Middle East peace process at present, I thought it might be worth commenting on what this man has to say. Not necessarily on whether his claims are true or not, for I can't verify that. And I do find them a bit difficult to accept, for they seem sensationalized and no hard evidence is presented to back up his assertions. But I thought I would comment on the fact that he is making such claims, and what conclusions this may lead us to.

The report comes from a man called Michael Salla, who is actively involved in researching the field of exopolitics. This is the study of what the political implications would be were it acknowledged by the governments of earth that an extraterrestrial presence does in fact exist. Salla has also studied international politics and conflict resolution. He believes there is a conspiracy to try and cover up the existence of an extraterrestrial presence, and thinks that there may be up to sixteen extraterrestrial races interacting with mankind in a variety of ways. Salla claims that there has been an off-the-record meeting at the United Nations headquarters in regards to the UFO phenomenon. He cites an unnamed source who was apparently present at this meeting, and passed on information on what was discussed to two associates of Salla, Clay and Shawn Pickering. Apparently the meeting was convened after various nations expressed their concern over a seeming increase in the number of reported UFO sightings being made in their territories. Constant freedom of information requests on the alleged sightings has also forced many governments to open their archives to the public, the latest being the United Kingdom .
According to this source in the United Nations, the nations of the world will continue to experience an increase in UFO activity. This will force many governments of the world to come clean with what they know about the phenomenon. The governments will then acknowledge that some of these sightings have been of their own advanced military aircraft, equipped with advanced anti-gravity technology. This will ease fears of an alien invasion. And around the year 2013, the governments will finally acknowledge that contact has been made with extraterrestrial civilizations.

Quote: "1) There is a group he is affiliated with whose task is to release information to certain sectors of society--i.e., your community (UFO). 2) The briefing had to do with calming the nerves of certain nation-states regarding sightings. 3) The Russians seem really anxious. 4) The Bush boys (Neo-cons) are anxious about being left out of the loop, when Bush steps down. 5) Although incidents are occurring around the world, these are NOT "Independence Day" types. In fact, our source stated that the ships are not as big as the ones portrayed in the film. 6) When contact is made (officially to the world) there will be no ambiguity. 7) You'll know things are heating up when suicides dramatically increase. A date of 2013 was given. Shawn stated, "Perhaps a meltdown factor." Source nodded yes. 8) Our source was to dress in civilian clothing to put the Russians at ease. They hate military dress. 9) The civilian dress was to facilitate deniability so as not to implicate the military.

Now I don't know whether any of this is true or not. When it comes to extraterrestrial life, we know from the Scriptures that the Lord created the earth to be inhabited (Isaiah 45:18), and as far as we can tell there is no life on other planets. But there is life in outer space, for the heavens are the present abode of Satan and his angels (Ephesians 2:2). Whether this secret UN meeting happened or not doesn't really matter. It's Salla's 'message' that matters, and millions of people are buying it. The message is, that we are not alone in the universe, and mankind needs to unite under one authority if he is to progress on to greater things. And as we have seen, Salla is not the only one who is propagating this message. For many New Agers are proclaiming that the earth must go through a dramatic upheaval, while millions of people will be beamed up to alien motherships to formulate a new type of world government in an effort to bring about peace on earth. We know from Scripture that a one world government will be set up (Revelation 13:3). And we know that the Lord is coming back to take those who have trusted in Jesus Christ home to heaven (John 14:3). The Bible also states that during the tribulation period, God will send mankind " strong delusion that they should believe a lie, that all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness
", 2nd Thessalonians 2:11-12. Could that lie be that mankind is not alone in the universe? According to Salla's article, when contact is made with the extraterrestrial races, the suicide rate will dramatically increase as many people are led to believe everything they have been taught is a lie. Who knows? Whenever the rapture happens, there is no doubt Satan will be making the most of it, in order to bring about mass deception on earth.

John 14:6
Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Forget about the truth being 'out there'. Jesus Christ is truth, and it is only through Him that we can gain access to God. Do not believe the lies of Satan. Believe the truth of the Scriptures, and trust in Jesus Christ for salvation today.
